Upon expiry of the notification period at 00:00 hours CET on 1 January 2023, the war risk cover will be reinstated and the clause as set out below will be automatically incorporated in all Certificate of Entry(s) and Insurance Policy(ies):

Gard P&I Member Circular No. 13/2022, December 2022

Territorial and Conflict Exclusion Clause

1. This policy excludes all loss, damage, liability, cost or expense:
  - a. caused by or arising from or in connection with any Russia-Ukraine conflict and/or any expansion of such conflict; or
  - b. in any area or territory or territorial waters where Russian armed forces, Russian-backed forces, and/or Russian authorities, are engaged in conflict within the territories (including territorial waters) of the Russian Federation, Belarus, Ukraine and any disputed regions of Ukraine, the Crimean Peninsula and the Republic of Moldova.
  - c. arising from capture, seizure, arrest, detainment, confiscation, nationalisation, expropriation, deprivation or requisition for title or use, or the restraint of movement of vessels and cargo in the territories (including territorial waters) of the Russian Federation, Belarus, Ukraine and any disputed regions of Ukraine, the Crimean Peninsula and the Republic of Moldova.

JL2022-019, 21st December 2022

In the absence of notice in writing having been received from the Assured prior to the expiry of the notification period the inclusion of the Territorial and Conflict Exclusion Clause shall be deemed to have been endorsed upon and form part of the insurance.

Cover for war risks that fall outside of the above exclusion remain unchanged following the reinstatement, subject to the other exclusions as set out in the relevant Certificate of Entry or Insurance Policy.
